Debussy In Proportion A Musical

Debussy abandoned Dupont for her friend Marie-Rosalie Texier, known as "Lilly", whom he married in October 1899, after threatening suicide if she refused him. She was affectionate, practical, straightforward, and well liked by Debussy's friends and associates, but he became increasingly irritated by her intellectual limitations and lack of musical sensitivity.

Claude Debussy - Wikipedia

It is not uncommon for musicians to find mathematics appealing; both disciplines involve precision, organization, and structure.
