Emile Durkheim- Concept of Social Fact | Dr. V.K ...

In The Rules of the Sociological Method (1895), Durkheim outlined a methodology for sociology. At the core of this is the notion that society is an independent level of reality, and may be studied as such. The regularities that may be identified in society, for example in social statistics, which Durkheim calls 'social facts', may thus be treated as 'things', which is to say that they ...
