This Union notes Staff in UK universities have suffered a real terms pay cut of 14.5% since 2009 [1]. A huge number of teaching staff - including many postgraduates who are also UCLU's members - are on low-paid, precarious, casual contracts, and are not even paid fully for the hours they work. Women academics are on the wrong side of a 12.6% gender pay gap compared to men [2].

The chair's report from the Investigation into the History of Eugenics at UCL is published today. It did not investigate the London Conference on Intelligence (LCI).. That's odd. I thought that Inquiry was created to get answers about the LCI and to investigate if there was a larger body of activity, or supporting mindset, at the university to support it.
