Arguably the biggest change in Pathfinder 2E is the mandate that each Adventure Path must run from level one to 20. In the first edition of the RPG, only two Adventure Paths ended at level 20 - and those required either an entirely new progression system or a larger number of high difficulty encounters in order to work.

Mokmurian as presented in the original adventure path was a stone giant with 14 levels of wizard, creating a CR 15 creature. Under the Pathfinder system, the same stone giant with 14 levels of wizard is a CR 18 creature! In order to preserve the flow and background of the adventure, Mokmurian is presented here as a full CR 18 creature.
