I bought this little library a few months ago, when I first noticed how much my little girl seems to enjoy watching Sarah and Duck. These are very simple stories about the main characters, and great for little ones (1-2 years). My little girl (now 22 months) wants them read at least once a day, and can even remember the words.

My boys are obsessed with Sarah and Duck so this little set was a perfect addition to our book collection. As an added bonus, the covers of all four books make up a little puzzle, which they loved as well. Only thing I wish I had noticed first was how TINY they are. They are little picket sized books, not your typical board book size.

Prisoner of Tehran, Marina Nemat's brave and insightful memoir, was published over ten years ago, but it continues to amaze me.I never miss the chance to recommend it, as the author's example of resilience and unbreakable spirit is truly inspiring. In this book, Nemat shares her life as a child and teenager in Iran, focusing on how the Islamic Revolution that overthrew the Shah, and ...
