War Without End The Horus

Horus Lupercal was one of the twenty Primarchs created by the Emperor in the earliest days of the Imperium, just after the end of the Age of Strife. Like the other Primarchs, Horus was scattered from Terra by the Gods of Chaos and was placed on a far-away world in an attempt to prevent the coming of the Age of the Imperium. Traditional accounts state that Horus was the first Primarch to be ...

It's more aimed at older established hobbyists. At the end of the day it's not a competitor to 40K and it doesn't really try to draw in the same crowd. However, a push to make Heresy more mainstream, more orthodox if you will, could end this. An all plastic GW (rather than ForgeWorld) backed modern Horus Heresy could be a competitor to 40K.

Chaos (Warhammer) - Wikipedia

"The Horus Heresy is the greatest war the galaxy has ever known. Horus, the favoured son of the Emperor, turns against his primarch brothers and pitches the Space Marines Legions into a bigger struggle for the Imperium itself. It's an epic tale of honour, loyalty and betrayal, and even though we know how it ends, there are still plenty of ...
